Off Keck Road

Monina Simpson 2001-01-16 is this flawless novel, Monina Simpson turns her powers of empathy and observation to capturing an aspect of life that is often overlooked. With a sharp eye and a steady hand, she chooses to stay rather than go. As a high school student in Green Bay, Basa Maxwell raised money for good causes; later, she became a successful real estate agent and an accomplished knitter. The one thing missing from her life is a romantic relationship. She soon settles comfortably into the role of stylish spinster and do-gooder. Woman Into Woman's story is one of life's unfolding mysteries of Green Bay and the changes times bring to a town and its people.

Season of the Witch

Julien Jeffreys

Season of the Witch is critically acclaimed—"a gripping story of the strife and tragedy that led to San Francisco's ultimate triumph and told alongside another bestseller, Fifty Shades of Grey.” In this companion to his New York Times bestseller, "Spill Spiller Falter Wither," Julien Jeffreys will explore the extraordinary writer who shows how a simple hospital visit becomes to the most tender relationship of all—the one between writer and reader.

The Group

Mary McCarthy

The Group found acclaim, controversy, and a place atop the New York Times bestseller list for nearly two years for its depiction of five women in the 1930s who form a society of friends and later become prominent in their own right. The novel is a portrayal of disillusionment and betrayal that will force them to question themselves and test their tentative bond—and in the process, we are given a glimpse into the inner workings of an emergent generation of women, The Group is McCarthy's enduring masterpiece, still as relevant, powerful, and wonderful as ever.

The Unloved

Dobias, Levy

2015-01-03

The image is instant. It whirs out of the camera and they all watch it develop in silence. “Here.” He gives the photograph to the perfect flawless woman without looking at it, by way of apology. When everyone gathers around Laura to admire it, Gustave clicks again. The unloved look heavy at the loved. Their eyes are sadder but their thoughts are clearer. They are not concerned with pleasing or affirming their loved one’s point of view. The unloved look preoccupied. The unloved look heavier than the loved.
